Reviewer's report:

Dear authors

Kindly notice that, all your comments on not using the CT scan, debridement, and operating under local anesthesia must be in the manuscript. This can help the reader to understand the management at your setting and help you to improve your management. It is strange that theater space was not available for a disease with mortality rate 42.9%? I think that it is important to review your management plan of such patients.

I have asked the authors to provide a comparison between patients who died and others who survived. It must include all the important data of the patients, yet, many data were not included. Statistical consultation may help in improving the results of study.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.
