Version: 0 Date: 19 Jun 2017

Reviewer's report:

Interesting study particularly using ROC analysis to determine the sensitivity and specificity of ONSD.

I have minor comments as following.

Page 4, line 13.
I suggested to make the discrimination equation clearer with parenthesis.

Page 4, line 5.
Again I suggested to edit the discrimination equation.

Page 5, line 1 and 4.
Typing error on "colleges". It should read "colleagues".

Page 5, line 18
Please clarify the numbers as it is quoted from reference number 18 incorrectly.

Page 6, line 9-10.
I am not sure I fully understand what the sentence means. Please elaborate why it the patients were clarified wrongly. Should it read "classified incorrectly"?
I think the third reason is too obvious to write down.

There are a few minor typing and spacing errors which should be corrected.
