Title: Chinese Version of Narcolepsy Severity Scale: A Validation Study

Version: 1 Date: 04 Oct 2019

Reviewer: Takashi Kanbayashi

Reviewer's report:

The current study is the first validation study of the narcolepsy severity scale in Asian population.

This report is very important for the asian patients with narcolepsy and the value of Narcolepsy Severity Scale.

The study design and results would be appropriate. However, I am not a expert of statistics, I could not judge the accuracy.

I have several minor concerns.

The abbreviation used in the abstract should be spell out.

Discussion is too long. It should be condense the length.
