I found this an interesting study.

There are just a few minor word/spelling changes I could suggest.

In the abstract, Methods section, line 2- ‘where’ change to ‘were’

Page 3 line 51- ‘mean’ change to ‘means’

Page 4, line 12- this sentence could probably be better written.

Page 11, line 23- to this day ‘an’ adequately etc. and ‘has not been carried out’ rather than ‘has been carried out’

Page 12, line 21- leave out ‘is’

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.

Yes

Does the work include the necessary controls?
