Reviewer's report:

Revised manuscript entitled: "Incarvine C suppresses proliferation and vasculogenic mimicry of hepatocellular carcinoma cells via targeting ROCK inhibition"

In this revised manuscript the authors answered to each comment and with this it could be acceptable for publication if it fits with the editorial board decision.

Overall this is a good report, which highlights IVC as an anti-metastatic and anti-VM agent. The paper is succinct and clear. The presented experiments are well controlled and the conclusions are supported by the data.
