Title: High Cancer Mortality for US-born Latinos: Evidence from California and Texas

Version: 0 Date: 22 Feb 2017

Reviewer: Bijou Hunt

Reviewer's report:

This is an important and under-studied topic and the authors have done an excellent job of addressing it. The Introduction appropriately and adequately sets up the study. The methods are clear and concise and include all necessary information. The tables and results are presented clearly. The Discussion is thoughtful and ties the study's findings in with existing literature. I recommend that this manuscript be accepted for publication.
