The manuscript is well written and the statistical part is solid. There are some minor concerns:
- Potential selection bias due to the fact that it was a retrospective study
- Thirty-five eyes of 18 patients experienced RG in group A. Does that mean that all patients except one hab bilateral complaints?
- Could the authors provide a sub-analysis of the fading effect of the RG (like a Kaplan Meier curve)?
- The results should also be presented graphically, not only in tables and in the text

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.
Yes

Does the work include the necessary controls?
If not, please specify which controls are required in your comments to the authors.
Unable to assess

Are the conclusions drawn adequately supported by the data shown?
If not, please explain in your comments to the authors.
Yes
Are you able to assess any statistics in the manuscript or would you recommend an additional statistical review?
If an additional statistical review is recommended, please specify what aspects require further assessment in your comments to the editors.
I am able to assess the statistics
