Reviewer’s report

Title: The relationship between mentoring on healthy behaviors and well-being among Israeli youth in boarding schools: A mixed-methods study

Version: 5 Date: 8 November 2014

Reviewer: Roger Thomas

Reviewer’s report:

Major compulsory revisions

A key issue is whether this study will enter the mentoring literature as a new article on mentoring, and which activities are appropriately described as mentoring.

The comments made by the second reviewer questioning how much of the time the teachers are acting as mentors and how much of the time as custodial guardians and as teachers needs addressing.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.

Declaration of competing interests:

I declare that I have no competing interests