Title: The role of cognitive stimulation at home in low-income preschoolers' nutrition, physical activity and Body Mass Index

Version: 2 Date: 21 May 2017

Reviewer: Pattanee Winichagoon

Reviewer's report:

The authors have addressed issues raised in the first revision adequately. There is a minor, but essential, suggestion on the following.

It was indicated in the MS of 'WHO national standards for children …', and made to reference # 20. Currently, WHO growth reference for school-aged and adolescents (BMI-z score) have been used internationally (see WHO website on growth standard/reference). A footnote on this particular notation should be added, if the national standard referred to in this MS differs from the international one or not.
