Title: Assessment of Peripheral Blood Lymphocyte Subsets in Children with Nutritional Iron Deficiency anemia (Two Egyptian Centers Study)

Version: 1 Date: 12 Oct 2017

Reviewer: Taddio Andrea

Reviewer's report:

Although not innovative, the paper is well written and the methods are good.

However the discussion is a sort a summary of previous study on the field and schematic comparison to authors' results: I would suggest to redefine to discussion session starting from authors' results and thoughts about them. Then a comparison with others studies will be well accepted.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
