Reviewer's report:

Congratulations for your work and for the paper.

This is an important issue, with good introduction and methodology. The ethical aspects are contemplated. The results could give us more information such as: differences between years and grades and the discussion can be deeper with these data.

The statistical analysis use only non-parametric measures. Did you check the normal distribution of the sample to evaluate the use of parametric tests? It's not clear.

More than 40% of the references are over 10 years old. Is it possible to find more recent references?

Thanks for your work!
