Title: Influences on Eating: A Qualitative Study of Adolescents in a Periurban Area in Lima, Peru

Version: 7 Date: 23 December 2015

Reviewer’s report:

This article is now very much improved, and makes an excellent contribution to the literature in this field.

MINOR ESSENTIAL REVISIONS

The final conclusion paragraph of the paper, however, is unfortunately very weak in that it finishes by saying that more research is needed. The conclusion paragraph should be rewritten to clearly and succinctly state what the new findings from this study are, and how they can be used going forwards. There is no need to say in the conclusions paragraph that more research is needed, because more research is always needed, and the limitations of the present work have already been dealt with adequately in the Limitations paragraph.
