Reviewer's report:

Thank you for inviting me to review this manuscript.

General comment.
This is a well written article on an important topic. I believe the results presented represent an important public health accomplishment of the last decade. However, I think the authors should include one or two sentences to explain why non-drinking has not risen among ethnic minorities. This, I believe, is an important part of the results of this study.

Specific comment
Also, authors should further read through the manuscript to correct few typos, punctuation and grammar errors. For example, in the result, line 180-181 requires editing. The spacing between full-stop and new sentences should be fixed. In some cases, there was no space between two sentences.
