Reviewer’s report:

PEER REVIEWER ASSESSMENTS:

OBJECTIVE - Full research articles: is there a clear objective that addresses a testable research question(s) (brief or other article types: is there a clear objective)?

Yes - there is a clear objective

DESIGN - Is the current approach (including controls and analysis protocols) appropriate for the objective?

Yes - the approach is appropriate

EXECUTION - Are the experiments and analyses performed with technical rigor to allow confidence in the results?

Yes - experiments and analyses were performed appropriately

Statistics - Is the use of statistics in the manuscript appropriate?

Yes - appropriate statistical analyses have been used in the study

INTERPRETATION - Is the current interpretation/discussion of the results reasonable and not overstated?

Yes - the author's interpretation is reasonable

OVERALL MANUSCRIPT POTENTIAL - Is the current version of this work technically sound? If not, can revisions be made to make the work technically sound?

Probably - with minor revisions
PEER REVIEWER COMMENTS:

GENERAL COMMENTS: The study is well-structured and presents the retrospective analysis of hospital-acquired Influenza cases within a large tertiary hospital in Australia.

The authors have been thorough in presenting the data clearly, in ways that further investigation can be performed. The methods used are appropriate for the hypotheses tested.

REQUESTED REVISIONS:

The manuscript could be strengthened by two further small additions. A comment on similar/dissimilar observations from other hospitals in Australia during the same Influenza season. Additionally, the acknowledgement that this type of study in order to provide unequivocal interpretations would need to include a wider sampling strategy as well a genomic component as a means of validating observed clustering (e.g. see similar work from Europe: Houlihan CF et al, 2018 J Inf Dis, 218(9))
