Reviewer's report:

I want to congratulate with the author for this well written paper.

The manuscript is suitable for publication I have only few comments, first it is not clear to me how did you manage with missing data, and I suggest to state it clearly in the method section. In addition I think it would be interesting to refer to BMI also in the results and not only on height (I'm not sure you refer to height when you state that LBP were longer at line 273.
