Version: 0 Date: 10 Sep 2017

Reviewer's report:

The manuscript is well-written. Very impressive number of patients.

I would advise to:

- Revising the result section: making it shorter and more concise.
- Always use absolute numbers in addition to percentages.
- Give some thoughts on clinical implications of your study
- Illustrate (in a figure) how the proportion of drainage vs resection changed in the time period
