Title: Pancreatic Abscess Within Hepato-Gastric Ligament: Case Report of an Extremely Rare Disease.

Version: 0 Date: 18 Dec 2019

Reviewer: Giovanni Merola

Reviewer's report:

Dear Authors

It has been a very pleasure to review your manuscript, despite the interesting case of a rare localization of pancreatic pseudocyst there are many issues that could not allow to publish your article on BMC surgery:

- Correct English language

- In the title you talk about literature review but in the text there is not reported any literature review

- Despite the rarity this is only a case report

- Figure are very low quality

Best regards
