Title: Validation of the global resource of eczema trials (great) database

Version: 1 Date: 6 November 2014

Reviewer: Steven R. Feldman

Reviewer's report:

This is a description of a database of eczema trials. The availability of this database may be helpful to researchers and clinicians working on eczema. The article is well written.

1. The abstract presents a nice summary of the paper.
2. The Intro makes a good case for the study, and the Intro ends with a nice clear statement of the purpose of the study.
3. The Methods are clear and appropriate.
4. The Results are clear with good use of tables.
5. The conclusions are reasonable.
