The present study is well-written and well-designed. I congratulate the authors for their study. Therefore, I recommend some changes through the manuscript before acceptance;

1- Abstract is adequate, but keywords should be re-evaluated. "Hearing" has been used overmuch.

2- What is the clinical implications of the present study for researchers?

3- Limitations of present study should be discussed at the end of discussion.

4- Conclusion should be re-written, it should be response the aim of the present study.

Best regards.
