Title: Coexistence of Graves' Disease and Unilateral Functioning Struma Ovarii: A Case report.

Version: 0 Date: 02 Sep 2015

Reviewer: Angela Leung

Reviewer’s report:

This is a case report of coexisting Graves' disease and struma ovarii in a 56 yo Thai woman. Unfortunately, it is not particularly novel but is well-written and adds to the limited literature on this topic.

1. Background, line 64: I would recommend not specifying the exact number of published case reports, as the review you cite in Metabolism is likely not exhaustive.

2. Background, line 68: Suggest changing "did" to "do" as it would make more sense to describe in the present tense.

3. Case presentation, lines 74-116: Suggest breaking up this very long case report into smaller paragraphs for ease of reading.

4. Discussion, lines 136-137: Same comment as #1 above.

5. Table 1: Suggest including also serum TSH as well, at least at first presentation. Also, if you are to include the trend in TFTs, the timeline of methimazole usage in this patient should also be included.
