Reviewer’s report

Title: Oral symptoms and salivary findings in oral lichen planus, oral lichenoid lesions and stomatitis

Version: 0 Date: 24 Mar 2017

Reviewer: Andrea Maria Schmidt-Westhausen

Reviewer's report:

An interesting paper on an objective which is / was still a matter of debate.

I have only one comment:

Page 8, line 48: The authors cited a paper by Beck et al (1961) saying that they used a categorized questionnaire based on Beck’s inventory scale. I scrutinized the paper but did not find any hint or information about a xerostomia-score or the like.
