Reviewer’s report

Title: Stress, health and quality of life of female migrant domestic workers in Singapore: A cross-sectional study

Version: 2  Date: 05 Jul 2017

Reviewer: Shanthi Thambiah

Reviewer’s report:

I think that revised version of the manuscript is publishable. I would suggest that the authors address the following:

i. The title needs to be tidied up - "Stress, health and quality of life of female migrant domestic workers in Singapore: A cross-sectional study"

ii. rework the conclusion by drawing on the findings of the study before proceeding to make policy recommendations etc. Rest day or the day off policy can be mentioned but this was not the main focus of the study.

iii. The manuscript needs to be proof read.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
