Title: The myth of menstruation: How menstrual regulation and suppression impact contraceptive choice

Version: 0 Date: 31 Mar 2019

Reviewer: Inaki Lete

Reviewer's report:

This is a well written well designed study that deserves its publication. There are some minor corrections I would like suggesting the authors:

The references are not enough updated. 10 up to 43 references are within the last 5 years but the other 33 are older. To my knowledge there are recent publications focused on this topic: women preferences about menstrual bleeding. Please update the references list and the references in the text.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.

Yes

Does the work include the necessary controls?
If not, please specify which controls are required in your comments to the authors.

Unable to assess

Are the conclusions drawn adequately supported by the data shown?
If not, please explain in your comments to the authors.

Yes

Are you able to assess any statistics in the manuscript or would you recommend an additional statistical review?
If an additional statistical review is recommended, please specify what aspects require further assessment in your comments to the editors.

I am able to assess the statistics
