Version: 0 Date: 12 Oct 2019

Reviewers report:

The manuscript is written well, however need essential revision for language at some points.

Also, it is important to clarify that on what basis the categorization of income as insufficient, sufficient etc is done. Was it purely participant perception?

Validating BIMF scale for Iranian women will be beneficial for other research scholars as well.

Utilization of a large sample size for such studies is always act as a strengthen point for the study.

All the best.

Thank you
