Reviewer's report:

Dear author,

Comments and corrections on the manuscript were made using "sticky note"

Corrections on the figures:

Figure 1: There was no explanation or reference to the figures; 1A, 1B, 1C, 1D, 1E, and 1F made on the manuscript. There were no arrows on the figures to indicate physiological changes on the paw oedema.

Figure 2: each figure; A, B, C, D, E, F should have a self explanatory sentence about it, with a letter or arrow on the figure indicating the physiological changes or observations that took place eg. "Migration of numerous inflammatory cells (I) throughout the section is observed" "I" is placed on the area in question.

Figure 3: There should be a self explanatory sentence about each figure; A, B, C, D, E, F , with a letter or arrow on the figure indicating any physiological changes that occurred.

Figure 4: The letters G, H, I, J, K, L used to describe the figures in the manuscript do not correspond with the letters representing the individual figures. There is no indication on the figures using arrow to show the changes that took place.
