Version: 1 Date: 31 Jul 2017

- Needs extensive copy editing for English language and grammar corrections.
- Gyejibokryeong-hwan - what parts of plants are used, mention clearly.
- Mention proper reference in support of use of this herbal formula in traditional medicine.
- IACUC data are repeating in more than one place, for different animal experiments. Just see, if IACUC data can be written only at one place (like- after details about Experimental Animals)
- Acute toxicity studies have been done following OECD guidelines, please include proper OECD reference to this effect.
- The conclusion written in the last part of ms seem better presented; try to write, something same in the conclusion for "Abstract' section.
