Title: Pulsatile dry cupping in chronic low back pain - a randomized three-armed controlled clinical trial

Version: 0 Date: 01 Feb 2018

Reviewer: Mohammad Zaidi

Reviewer's report:

I find this paper very interesting addressing many sensitive issues. However, It would have been better if author had used any other sensitive outcome measure in place of VAS, though it is acceptable. In Design part, authors have mentioned partially blinded but since there is no mention of assessor blinding either this word be omitted or mention the explanation.
