Reviewer's report:

1. Please remove the statistical analysis part from the abstract as it better fit in the methods section that you already mentioned.

2. Spelling mistakes: IL-1β (line 63), researches (line 93),

3. There are lots of wrong choice verbs: line 96 (occurs should be found), line 101-102 (in the traditional medicines of Brazil, L. ferrea is widely used in treatment of antidiarrheal,…..), line 115 ("…..bark has revealed...." to "…compounds were found in the bark of…)

4. Its okay with the definition of traditional medicine but authors were suggested to make clear popular medicine replacing with traditional medicine.

5. It should be in vitro in line 117.
