The authors have worked on the phytochemical, bioassays and chemo-preventive profiling of Arisaema Jacquemontii blume tuber extracts. The plant extract prepared from different solvents of variable polarities display varied phytochemical and pharmacological activities. The authors have followed the comments of reviewers and have considerably improved the revised manuscript. There are still some grammatical mistakes that need to be removed if the manuscript is considered for publication in BMC Complementary and Alternative Medicine.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.
