Title: The self-regulated learning of medical students in the clinical environment - a scoping review

Version: 0 Date: 11 Dec 2016

Reviewer: Philip Esterhuizen

Reviewer's report:

Thank you for an excellent submission that will be of value to numerous professional programmes. The work is presented well and the strengths and limitations of the work are clearly articulated. The authors identify the application of their work to their specific population of medical students but also suggest how the work can be used for other disciplines. Limitations are also identified, including the nature of the review being presented and, in so doing, prevent any misconceptions of the study.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.

Yes

Does the work include the necessary controls?
If not, please specify which controls are required in your comments to the authors.
