Reviewer’s report

Title: Implementation of a novel population panel management curriculum among interprofessional health care trainees

Version: 0 Date: 08 Aug 2017

Reviewer: Annie Noble

Reviewer’s report:

This is a well thought out study designed to improve not only knowledge of PPM, but an approach to improving inter-professional learning and understanding of each others roles.

I would be interested in a further exploration in a years time, of how embedded the proposed changes in attitudes and understanding really are across the professions.
