Reviewer’s report

Title: Pharmacology and Therapeutics resource session attendance and academic performance of pre-clerkship medical students in problem-based learning curricula

Version: 1 Date: 14 Jun 2019

Reviewer: Halah Ibrahim

Reviewer’s report:

The revised manuscript is greatly improved. The authors have addressed my previous comments. A few minor recommendations:

The Discussion section remains a bit lengthy and repetitive. The first 2 paragraphs repeat several points already made in the Introduction. Many of the results are also repeated. The authors should summarize the main findings of the study, put them into the context of the known literature, explain how this study expands what is already known and highlight areas for future research.

The manuscript needs editing for grammar and punctuation.
