Reviewer’s report

Title: Responsible Data Sharing in International Health Research: A Systematic Review of Principles and Norms

Version: 1 Date: 26 Feb 2019

Reviewer: Effy Vayena

Reviewer's report:

I am not convinced of your argument about this being a systematic review. There is a colloquial use of the term and there is a disciplinary use of the term. I do not think your review meets the criteria of a "systematic review" and therefore I do not think you should call it that. At best, you could refer to this as a scoping review.
