Reviewer’s report

Title: Conceptualising a model to guide nursing and midwifery in the community guided by an evidence review

Version: 1 Date: 10 Apr 2017

Reviewer: Danielle Williams

Reviewer's report:

This was a well written and informative paper.

The paper was structured in a logical way, that facilitated engagement with the manuscript.

The methods (search strategies) were well explained and transparent.

Findings were logical, and well supported, although I did feel there was a little discrepancy in the length of the sections for each theme (Theme 2 seemed significantly bigger).

Conclusions were logical, well founded and explicit.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
