Reviewer's report:

Thank you for submitting a manuscript on a topic that is well research in the nursing domain and contribute to knowledge generation. The introduction, background and motivation for the study is well motivated and clearly stated. It would have been meaningful to include the significance in particular in relation to the Uganda context. Similar studies were conducted in Africa and the comparisons or differences in conclusion of results could have been included. The reporting of data appears to be correct displayed and reported. The statistical analyses for a sample size of 51 was queried. However, the author did indicate this as part of the limitation. However, the implications on doing a multiple linear regression should be noted. Discussion points should be linked to other studies. Limitations and recommendations were suffice stated.
