Reviewer’s report

Title: A Qualitative Study of Factors Influencing Retention of Doctors and Nurses at Rural Healthcare Facilities in Bangladesh

Version: 3 Date: 22 May 2015

Reviewer: Stephen Reid

Reviewer’s report:

All compulsory revisions have been attended to, to my satisfaction.

Minor essential revisions include a thorough proof-reading as there are still a few grammatical errors.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
