Title: The Research Activities of Ontario's Large Community Acute Care Hospitals: A Scoping Review

Version: 0 Date: 19 Jun 2017

Reviewer: Sandra L. Siedlecki

Reviewer’s report:

Thank you for a very informative and well written manuscript. The methods were clearly described and the references cited related to the methodology were useful resources for readers. I think the topic is important and this is a study that can be replicated in other areas or over time.

My only comment would be that I cannot tell if you only included research publications by physicians or both physicians and nurses - this would be of interest to the readership.
