The authors have responded very well to my comments.

Some English requires further improvement, (only few), hope this will be dealt with via the journal.

Can the authors provide one or two accounts as evidence in the section: Comparing interviews between specialists and GPs.

Can the authors pl state in the manuscript that verbal consent is common practice in France that will clear up the uncertainty why the consent was not a written one.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.

Yes

Does the work include the necessary controls?
If not, please specify which controls are required in your comments to the authors.
