Title: Satisfaction with service coverage and drug list may influence patients’ acceptance of general practitioner contract service: a cross-sectional study in Guangdong, China

Version: 1 Date: 07 Feb 2019

Reviewer: Yingyao Chen

Reviewer's report:

The authors answered previous questions clearly. The manuscript has been much improved after their careful revision. There are only some minor issues remaining to be solved.

1. There was a typo in table 2. Data on satisfaction with medical equipment (the eighth dimension) was misplaced and should be moved the line below.
2. Table 3 was presented at line 462. I suppose it should be inserted at line 224.
3. I would recommend converting CNY monetary unit into USD for readers’ convenience (line 105 & table 1).
