Reviewer's report:

Community mobilisation intervention to prevent violence against women and girls is an important approach in reducing IPV and GBV which this manuscript seems to be focused on; however the authors have not described the intervention and the participatory-based actions drawn out of conducting the study. Any action should be considered as a finding in the participatory inquiries. The research might say this is not PAR but approach has been defined in this manuscript bring PAR procedure in mind! so the intervention needs to be clearly described in the method section.
