Title: Built environmental characteristics and diabetes: a systematic review and meta-analysis

Version: 0  Date: 03 Oct 2017

Reviewer: Ana Lopez-De Fede

Reviewer's report:

This is an important publication for the field documenting the intersection between diabetes and the built environment. The methods were appropriate and well documented for this review and meta-analysis. As many of the journals addressing the built environment (e.g., cartography, ESRI, etc.) may not be a part of the traditional peer-review literature this an important caveat to add to this publication. The caveat would facilitate further inquiry by researchers seeking to explore this area of inquiry. Lastly, given the small numbers of publications meeting the criteria, the conclusion section should reflect a statement on the need for further research.
