Reviewer’s report

Title: Participatory Praxis as an Imperative for Health-related Stigma Research

Version: 2 Date: 02 Nov 2018

Reviewer: Jie Zhuang

Reviewer's report:

I really appreciate the authors' efforts in making revisions to their manuscript, and the changes were great additions to strengthen the manuscript. I think the revisions were sufficient and adequate.

I would like to see the authors clearly and explicitly discuss the advantages of this approach over other commonly used approaches in one paragraph as a conclusion.

Also, the current version had a lot of tracked changes which were not supposed to be there.
