Title: Health professions digital education on clinical practice guidelines: a systematic review by Digital Health Education collaboration

Version: 0 Date: 22 Jan 2019

Reviewer: Trine Bergmo

Reviewer’s report:

This paper is a systematic review of health professions digital education on clinical practice guidelines. The aim is to evaluate the effectiveness of digital education in improving adoption of clinical practice guidelines.

This article is well written and follows recommended guidelines for systematic reviews. The study selection, data sources, collection and analysis are described. The methodological quality of included RCTs was independently assessed and the results are clearly reported and discussed.

This paper can, in my opinion, be published as it is.
