Title: Return of Genetic and Genomic Research Findings: Experience of a Pediatric Biorepository

Version: 0 Date: 18 Jun 2019

Reviewer: Brian Van Ness

Reviewer's report:

While this is a thorough and thoughtful approach to identifying the pathway for returning results, in the end the successful returns are VERY small.

12 results communicated; 5 actually returned; 3 in process. Thus the analysis of value and costs are based on such small numbers, it is not really a valid analysis.
