Version: 0 Date: 01 Nov 2018

Reviewer: Indu Mani

Reviewer's report:

1. Was any dietary information gathered from the women? It would be useful to have the nutritional intakes of the women during pregnancy and lactation.

2. The use of Generalized Estimating Equation Linear Model is a novel and interesting way to analyze the data. A little more explanation about the expression of the results in Tables 2 and 3 is required.

3. There are a number of grammatical errors in the paper - please get them corrected.
