Reviewer’s report

Title: Zinc supplementation in patients with cirrhosis and hepatic encephalopathy: A systematic review and meta-analysis

Version: 1 Date: 03 May 2019

Reviewer: Craig McClain

Reviewer's report:

The authors have responded to my critiques. I would make one minor change, on line 267. I would state that supplementation had a "significant effect on the performance of NCT."

There are still several grammatical errors that need to be changed, especially related to verb tense.
