Reviewer’s report

Title: Time trends of non-alcoholic beverage consumption among adults in Germany, 1990-2011

Version: 0 Date: 03 Nov 2019

Reviewer: Antonia-Leda Matalas

Reviewer's report:

The findings of this research are indeed relevant to public health, especially in view of the recommendations about limiting the intake of simple sugars.

However the present work suffers from a poor language; weakness include the inconsistent use of verb tenses, the multiple syntactic mistakes, conceptual weaknesses and the exhausting details given when presenting the data.
