Title: Description of Nursing and Midwifery Pre-Service Education Accreditation in East, Central, and Southern Africa

Version: 0 Date: 05 Jul 2017

Reviewer's report:

This is a very well planned and organised work. Documenting status and progress of accreditation in different countries and regions, plays a motivating force to all partners, among other factors, to proceed towards continuous quality improvement. The nursing and midwifery pre-service education has been neglected in majority of developing countries for decades. The results presented here from Africa are encouraging and similar studies, from other African countries and from other developing countries in other regions, should be encouraged and supported. I commend authors for the excellent work.
