Title: Opportunities for Human Resources for Health and Rehabilitation: A Response to Jesus et al.

Version: 0 Date: 16 Apr 2017

Reviewer: Carla Castillo Laborde

Reviewer’s report:

As the authors mentioned, the physical rehabilitation workforce is an under-researched area that deserves all the attention. Therefore, as well as Jesus et al.’s paper, this commentary should be also welcomed.

The commentary enriches the above-mentioned article offering interesting complements (i.e. the importance of governance, the role of Community Based Rehabilitation, the role of task-shifting). However, it would be recommended to consider a recognition that Jesus et al.’s paper does not pretend to cover all the particular initiatives or policies (or going into depth on them), but to systematize the existent evidence and to offer broad recommendations based on it (with all the limitations stated in the discussion section).
