Title: Cambodia's health professionals and the ASEAN Mutual Recognition Arrangements: Registration, education and mobility

Version: 0 Date: 09 May 2018

Reviewer: Norbert Dreesch

Reviewer's report:

A well written research paper highlighting problems encountered when implementing international regulatory agreements in a national context to achieve regional/international standards in training and education of the health workforce. Using qualitative research to underline implementation problems and issues illustrate well how complex the implementation of standards across participating countries is.
